MEMORIAE

CLEAR CREEK SCHOOL

HUNTINGTON, INDIANA

. FOR

The Staff wishes to present the 1963 edition of the MEMORIAE i hopes it will provide its readers with a vivid and joyous picture of days at old C.C.

The Staff has not followed a definite illustrated theme. It believes, as does the old Chinese proverb, that "a picture is worth mo han ten thousand words." Therefore, the staff has tried to make the ictures tell the story of the 1962-1963 school year. The goal has een to present an overall picture of both the lighter side and the erious side of school life.

/ORD

"MEMORIAE" STAFF

"Hurry, hurry for the deadline is near,"
Was the hue and cry heard far and nie,
From the first to the last of the whole year,
By Memoriae staff of C. C. High.
What a job it was, and we were on the run--
After school, during study hall, and class,
We joked, and laughed until the work was done,
And now we present your yearbook at last.
